Alumni Committee

An Institute's reputation and goodwill are greatly influenced by the accomplishments and standing of its former students. In acknowledgment of this, the Alumni Association seeks to promote interactions and strengthen ties between alumni and the Institute through events, initiatives, and services that will build partnerships that will be advantageous to both parties. The Institute is honored to know that its graduates have achieved success in their lives and occupations as a result of their efforts.

Objectives

The Alumni Committee connects with former students who are dedicated to advancing the interests of their alma mater, supporting its traditions and objectives, and boosting the Institute's reputation both locally and internationally. It will plan get-togethers to maintain connections made during the college years and programme to give alumni a sense of community and pride.

Role and Responsibilities

1. To organize and plan the annual alumni gathering and keep records of it.
2. Create a mobile app to update and preserve alumni data.
3. Networking and building alumni directories.
4. Getting email and SMS contacts so we may send birthday greetings to alumni and share information about conferences, campus events, and other things.
5. Acquiring knowledge about noteworthy accomplishments by graduates.
6. Obtaining alumni opinions on many topics.
7. Promote frequent seminars to encourage alumni involvement in placement, career counseling, instructional strategy, guest lectures, projects, endowments, etc. through increasing alumni involvement in college activities by accepting advice.
8. Alumni may be given access to college infrastructure (such as the library, sports facilities, conference rooms, and canteen) for a variety of uses.
9. Investigate and put into practice the alumni association development efforts made by other national/international institutes.
